

Wisdom of Gaia

Aspirations of Inspiration

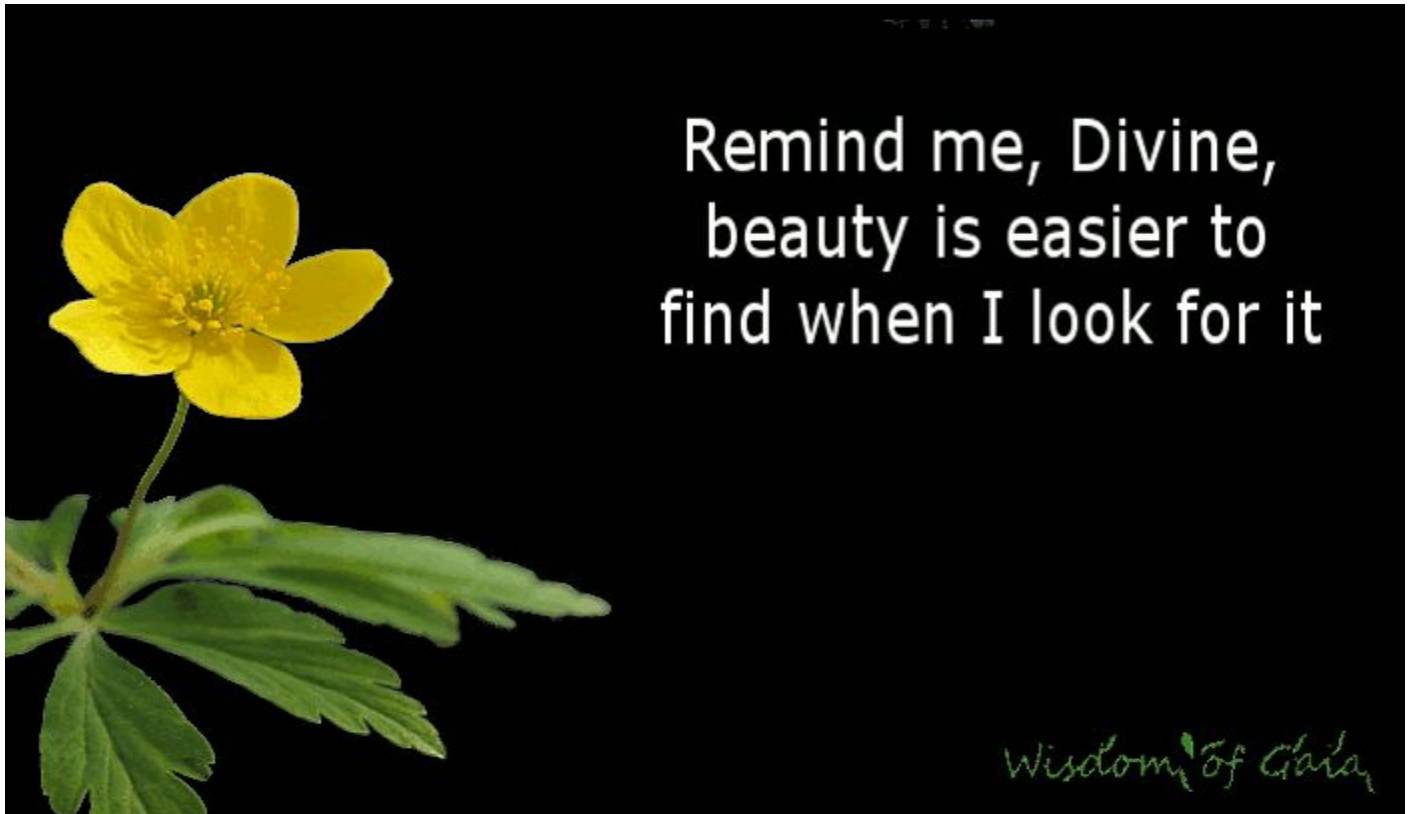

Welcome, we hope you enjoy this little resource of our images and crystals. May it guide you when doubting, engage you when lost, and give you the inspiration to walk your path the way you want to.

Whatever life gives us, it's how we feel about it that matters. Joy can bring tears and great sadness can bring laughter. Find your perspective, gain it, and keep it. What you think, feel, and do defines who you are and who you are going to be.

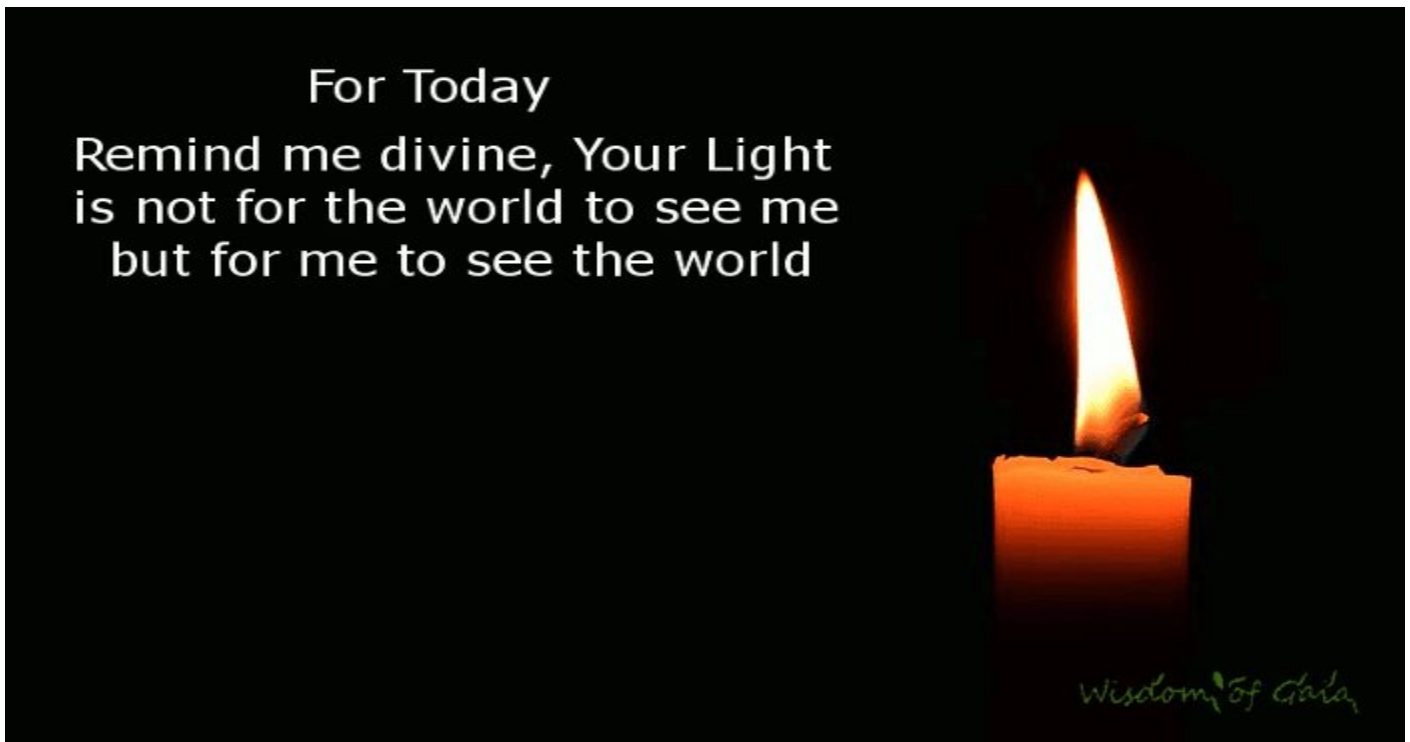

Enjoy.
